THE EVENING CRITIC.

Pield Sports and Awards at the Fair Yesterday.

The field sports at the fair yesterday, after our report closed, formed one of the most attractive and interesting features of the

Dr. J. W. Dounie's imported Scotch col-lies, seven in number, were first brought on the track. A flock of thirty sheep were let loose in the field. "Champion Tweed the Second," the most noted field trail-dog in America, was sent in pursuit of the sheep, and brought the whole flock back in fourteen minutes, penned them and then stood guard over them until relieved. "Scottish Maid the Second" accomplished the same feat in fifteen minutes.

The Roman chariot race was won by Mrs. Martin by a neck; time, fifty-eight seconds.

Then came a running race, single dash, three-quarters of a mile, open to members of any organized jockey, hunting or riding flull, without regard to weights carried. Purse, $75 to first horse, $25 to second. No mounts were allowed on horses that had been trained and run this year for any purse offered by a regular racing association. purse offered by a regular racing associa-tion: The following were the starters: James Rixey's s. g. Conductor, four years old.

J. W. Stewart's b. m. Fire-ball, uged.
Cooley & Hawkins' gr. g. Jake, four years old.

The horses had an even start and were well bunched from the word "go" to the "finish." Jake won first money by less than three lengths, Conductor capturing second money; time, 1:30.

The next race was a mile dash for all ages,

New York by Messrs. H. Mergentine and Edward Lamb.

Edward Lamb.

Washington, D. C., the most disgusted club in the Bachelors' Union, was represented by Mr. William Zahn.

Immediately after the knot was tied Mr. Martin Schaub, secretary of the Grand Union of Bachelors, which numbers about 4,000 throughout the United States, imposed a fine of 500 for the greatest violation of a fine of $50 for the greatest violation of the rules of the society, which was promptly paid in public by the now "jolly Benedict," and his name stricken from the roll of membership. Some of the ladies in the and his name stricken from the following membership. Some of the ladies in the party laid charges against a Baltimore Jolly Bachelor of having matrimonial intentions, and he was fined $5 on the spot, which was paid under protest. In accordance with the rules, when a jolly bachelor marries he is dead to his former comrades, who will wear a small piece of crape on the left arm during ton days. A grand on the left arm during ten days. A grand wedding supper was provided, consisting of all the delicacies of the season, and was much enjoyed, especially by the crestfallen bachelors, who were bantered and teased by Garfield Memorial Hospital.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Garfield Memorial Hospital was held in the red parlor of the Ebbitt last night. There were present General W. T. Sherman, Mr. John A. Baker, James Gilfillan, Dr. S. C. Busey, A. S. Solomons, Dr. G. C. Palmer. Reginald Fendall, Dr. F. A. Ashford, L. J. Davis, Dr. J. M. Toner, H. W. Garnett, J. H. Saville, H. A. Willard, J. Ford Thompson, and Dr. Smith Townshend. Mr. Davis, from the committee appointed for the purpose, reported the following:

That a committee of five be appointed on distribution of appeal and for such other purposes as may be connected therewith.

That the appeal be cabled to our ministers and consuls abroad, with the request that they bring it to the attention of the courts and peoples to whom they may be accredited, and that the press associations be requested to publish the same.

That a finance committee of three be appointed, charged with the investment of such money as may be received, an engraved earl bearing the vignatic of Mr. Garfield Memorial Hospital.

cials having residences here have united in a movement to do marked and enduring honor to the name of the late President, whose great life was so sadly and so tragically ended. His reputation as a statesman, legislator, and executive was acquired in this Capital. Beyond his claim to admiration and gratitude, he was personally beloved by all classes of citizens in a degree that rarely falls to the lot of any public man. Reflecting his own wishes so far as they may be inferred from his career and his character, the memorial designed is that of a national hospital, to be located in the District of Columbia, to be known forever by his name. It will be a provision for the relief of human suffering, from the cap of which he drank the bitterest dregs, and in the breadth of its human charity it will fitly typify the noble nature and exalted aims of the hero and martyr. The hospital is designed to be as wide in its scope of beneficence as was the kindly heart of the dead President in its outstretch of human sympathics. It will be open to those needing its aid and ministrations without regard to class, caste, creed or color. To be a a movement to do marked and enduring ing its aid and ministrations without regard to class, caste, creed or color. To be a sufferer in need of help will be the only passport required to enter its door and secure its aid. Such an institution, founded in the cause of charity and bearing the name of Garfield, appeals to the generosity of every one, and to every one the appeal is made. Contributions, small and great, are solicited, and may be safely remitted to Hon. James Gilfillan, Treasurer of the United States, who has consented to act as treasurer of the fund. "He gives twice who who gives quickly." Let the response be prompt, generous and universal.

W. T. Sheemaan, Chairman, John A. Baker, Secretary.

JOHN A. BAKER, Secretary.

The meeting then adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

The Vacancy on the Supreme Bench The impression is that the President will send in a nomination for Justice of the Su-preme Court before the adjournment of the preme Court before the adjournment of the Senate, although he has not made any positive statement on the subject. He has been informed by the Justices of the Supreme Court that an early appointment will contribute very much to expedite the business of the tribunal. In Supreme Court circles the belief has been that Judge Gray, of the Supreme Court of the State of Massachusetts, is most fikely to receive the appointment. There is so much pressure from Maine for the appointment to be made from that State that it may prevent an appointment either from Maine or Massachuser. pointment either from Maine or Massachusetts.
